DID YOU KNOW?

Children that read 20 minutes every day can learn up to 2 million words annually?

Reading fiction books can improve your child's decision making skills!

Reading: This month we will focus on the following benchmarks:

ELA.4.R.1.3: Identify the narrator's point of view and explain the difference between a narrator's point of view and character perspective in a literary text.

ELA.4.R.1.4: Explain how rhyme and structure create meaning in a poem.

ELA.4.R.1.2: Explain a stated or implied theme and how it develops using details in a literary text.

ELA.4.R.2.1: Explain how text features contribute to the meaning and identify the text structures of problem/solution, sequence, and description in texts.

ELA.4.R.2.3: Explain an author's perspective toward a topic in an informational text.

ELA.4.V.1.2: Apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Writing: This month we will continue practicing to write argumentative essays as well as expository essays that include an introduction paragraph, body paragraphs, and a conclusion paragraph.

Math: This month we will focus on the following benchmarks:

- Collect, Represent, and Analyze Numerical Data
- Area and Perimeter
- We will start Measurement Application and finish in May

Social Studies: This month we are continuing to work through Unit 4: Florida in Modern Times.

Science: April Science topics are Heredity and Learning, and Environmental Impacts

Reminder: Class assessments are subject to change based on the needs of each individual class. Please make sure to check your child's planner daily to see when upcoming assessments will be given.
